KIDZART: KidzArt for preschoolers is a 45 minute fun and exciting drawing program for 4-6 year olds. Children learn how lines and shapes come together to make up the world around them. We offer praise, support and direction while we ask for their attention and willingness to perform their personal best. Each drawing class offers a new subject and drawing. Students can join one or all three drawing classes and have fun learning to draw without judgement and with lots of encouragement. Washable markers is our medium of choice so please dress accordingly.

MAKING MUSIC: The toddler class will enjoy more independent singing. The children listen to music and improvise movement and creative play. They enjoy the use of musical instruments. Adult participation required in the toddler class. For the 3-5 year old class, imagination and play-acting is key, as they sing longer songs with a greater pitch range. Traditional and multicultural songs and percussion instruments add to the fun of this class. Adults are allowed to observe this class and participation is not required. Participant's sibling is not allowed in the class, unless he is a non-walker and confined to a carrying device. Parent will be required to leave the class if the sibling becomes disruptive to the class.
